All of us live with anxiety! This class attempts to show the student God's way to deal with anxiety and worry that is part of our everyday living. We will build on experiences of class participants; learn from God's teachings, and work to develop practical ways to cope with the ever increasing pressures upon us. This is a great intergenerational class for you to consider. George Lamberth will teaching this class. B203

Each of us go through times when we struggle with doubts about God and about life. This class is going to help those who attend to look at their faith and what can strengthen it. It is for people new to the journey of faith and for those who have lived by faith for years. Steve Croft and Jerry Karels will lead this class. D108
